EXPERIENCE LIFE OF ADVENTURE & DISCOVERY

Nestled on the protected UNESCO Biosphere Reserve of Baa Atoll, Dhigufaru Island, meaning “a long reef,” is the epitome of an exotic getaway. Whether you like to kick back, relax, and take in the magnificent, stunning beauty of the island and surrounding reef, or if you are looking for a more action-packed, exotic adventure, we offer the perfect balance of both.

GETTING TO THE ISLAND

Dhigufaru Island is located on the world renowned UNESCO Biosphere Reserve, Baa Atoll. You have the choice of flying directly to Dhigufaru via seaplane during daytime, which takes approximately 40 minutes from Malé International Airport, or taking a domestic scheduled evening flight to Baa Atoll Dharavandhoo Domestic Airport, which takes approximately 20 minutes. Our friendly team will then escort you to our speedboat, which will take you to the island in 30 minutes.
